

Vincent Do

10029 Rivers Trail Dr. 321-444-1078
Orlando, FL 32817 vi200139@ucf.edu

To follow my passion for computer science by continuing to hone my technical skills, gain valuable experience, and contribute meaningfully to my community, workplace, and any organization I become a part of.

Skills:Technical Skills

- Proficient in object-oriented programming languages (e.g., Java)
- Familiar with low-level programming in C and C++
- Web development experience using React, TypeScript, HTML, and CSS
- Comfortable working in Linux environments and using the command line

Soft Skills

- Strong customer service abilities; experienced in daily client interaction
- Effective time management; skilled at meeting deadlines under pressure

Education:

(AA) Associate in Arts 2023

University of Central Florida — 2024–Present

GPA: 3.5

Relevant Courses

- COP 3330 Object-Oriented Programming
- COP 3502 Computer Science I

Associate in Arts (A.A.)

Valencia College — 2023

Valencia learning assistant: 2025-present

Tutoring students in programming and debugging

Restaurant manager: Fairbanks restaurant: 2019-present

Overseeing operations, cooking, cleaning, customer service and closing.

Employment experience:

Gas station cashier: 2015–2017

Tending to the register, customer service, stock inventory, and handling closing.

Extracurricular Involvement

Secretary-Valencia Tech Club

Valencia College — 2023–Present

Maintained meeting notes, organized agendas, and coordinated communications

Helped plan club events, workshops, and peer coding sessions